LETTER OF DISENGAGEMENT

Dear Adebisi,

This is to inform you that Devcenter Innovation Limited will not be renewing your one-month contract, your one-month engagement with the company which started on the 9th January and ended 9th February is hereby terminated due to significant performance-related issues.

This decision has not been taken lightly and is a result of a thorough evaluation of your performance and conduct during your time with us, it is evident that your performance and behavior to work have not met the required standards expected of a contractor in your position.

Please be advised that the payment procedure has started and that you should anticipate your money by Friday at the latest.

We encourage you to use this experience as an opportunity for personal and professional growth.

If you have any questions or require further information regarding your termination, please do not hesitate to contact our Human Resources department
